

CELEBRATING WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

NONPROFIT

New Hire

Melissa B. Honig, LNHA,
MHSA

John Knox Village of Florida, Inc.

President & Chief Executive Officer

Melissa Honig is the first woman CEO in JKV's 59-year history, and its 14th Chief Executive Officer. She has a long-standing connection to JKV and a deep appreciation for its resident-centered philosophy. Honig's leadership priorities include building strong relationships across campus, fostering organizational transparency, and advancing initiatives that elevate the quality of life, services, and amenities for residents. Under Honig, enduring growth and engaged purposeful living thrive at JKV.

NONPROFIT

Professional Recognition

Gail Sutton-Pauling

John Knox Village of Florida, Inc.

Vice President of Hospitality

Gail Sutton-Pauling has served on the Executive Leadership Team for over twenty years, first as a Senior Financial Analyst and later as Director of Project Management. Now, as Vice President of Hospitality, she ensures the safety, comfort, and satisfaction of more than 1,000 residents. Her leadership in hospitality services includes oversight of housekeeping and transportation. Gail's keen attention to detail has enhanced and improved the quality and efficiency of these essential amenities.

NONPROFIT

Professional Recognition

Jennifer Stevens

John Knox Village of Florida, Inc.

Vice President of Healthcare

Vice President of Healthcare Jennifer Stevens has dedicated her career to enhancing the quality of life for older adults. In her role at John Knox Village, she oversees the community's full continuum of care, including assisted living, skilled nursing, and short- and long-term rehabilitation services. Beyond her leadership on campus, Stevens is also a member of the Board of Trustees for LeadingAge Southeast, where she advocates for advancing and improving healthcare in senior living communities.

NONPROFIT

Professional Recognition

Kim Ali

John Knox Village of Florida, Inc.

Vice President of Sales & Marketing

As Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Kim wears many hats. In addition to leading her department, she also runs Life Enrichment, Production, Fitness, Resident I.T. Education, Healthcare Admissions, Public Relations, and supports the Home Health program—managing a team of more than 30 direct reports. Her strategic vision and ability to foster teamwork are key to JKV's continued growth and success. Kim has educated thousands of seniors on the benefits of community living and a purposeful life.

HEALTH CARE

Professional Recognition

Kendra Giles BSN, RN

John Knox Home Health Agency

Healthcare Administrator

Kendra Giles is the Administrator for John Knox Home Health, a full-service, Medicare-certified home care agency. According to Kendra, "We provide personalized services by a highly skilled team in patients' homes, helping them recover and regain independence in a familiar environment." The result is consistent, high-quality care delivered with empathy. Services include skilled nursing, physical therapy, and occupational therapy, including speech, medical, and daily personal care. Lic #: 20601096